LETTER CARRIERS.

Postmaster General Hatton Waited Upon by a Delegation—What Shall Constitute a Day's Work.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A delegation of Philadelphia letter carriers today waited upon Postmaster General Hatton and presented a memorial, wherein they recite their long and faithful service, and suggest that they are entitled to receive compensation for an extra number of hours labor given to the government since the passage of the eight hour act over and above the eight hours constituting a legal day's work. They also ask that some general order be promulgated which may result in placing the letter carriers in the post office upon the same footing as to the number of hours of labor per day as other employes and workmen employed in the service of the government. The Postmaster General informed the delegation that congressional action would be required to secure the objects of the memorial, and he indicated a willingness to further the procurement of the necessary legislation by all the means at his command.

CONFEDERATE CRUISERS.

Bill Presented in the Senate Yesterday by Mr. Miller of New York.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A bill was presented in the Senate today by Mr. Miller of New York, providing that the words "Cofederate cruisers" in the act re-establishing the court of Commissioners of Alabama claims shall be construed and held to include for all the purposes of said act any and all vessels, officers and crews of vessels of organized expeditions acting as such by the authorit of the la e so-called Confederate government or any o ficers by which the vessels or cargoes of loyal citizens of the United States were captured or destroyed on the high seas, and that the act be construed to include any waters within the admiralty jurisdiction of the United States. It further provides that any case already heard involving the question of Confederate cruisers shall be reopened and reheard upon due notice.

BANKRUPTCY BILL.

Slight Hope of Its Passage by Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Representative Collins of Massachusetts has charge of the bill reported from the House committee on judiciary at the last session of Congress providing for a new bankruptcy law. In an interview with an Associated Press representative today, he said: "An effort is being made to learn if members who were opposed to the measure have changed their minds since the recent election. On May 19th an effort was made to consider the bill in the House under a suspension of the rules or to have a day set apart for its consideration. A two-thirds vote was necessary. The vote stood 137 to 93, and of course the object of the friends of the bill was defeated. It will be necessary to secure 20 or 30 votes from the opponents of the measure to pass it. The greatest opposition is from the South and West. Without securing the necessary two-thirds vote to get a suspension of the rules, there is no hope for the bill."

INDUSTRIAL MATTERS.

Probability that Thousands of Workingmen Will be Thrown Out of Employment.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 3.—There are indications that some of the extensive industrial establishments in this vicinity, instead of reducing wages or running on half time, will meet the trade depression by suspending operations entirely, for a long or short period, as occasion may require. Carnegie Brothers & Co., who give employment to nearly 6,000 men at their Braddocks and Homestead Steel Works, their Union Iron Mills and their blast furnaces and mines, are among the firms credited with this intention. They have already ordered work to stop at their limestone quarries, and it is said the order for a general suspension may be expected in a few days.

MR. BLAINE CHEERFUL.

He Thinks His Vote Should Satisfy the Ambition of any Man

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Mr. James G. Blaine, Miss Dodge (Gail Hamilton), Mr. James G. Blaine, Jr., Miss Sherman and Mrs. and Miss Goodwin arrived in this city at 7 o'clock last evening and went immediately to the residence of Mr. Steve Elkins, where they spent the night. Mr. Blaine is said to be in most excellent health and spirits. He is here entirely on private business and expects to leave for Washington in a few days. A gentleman who was present tonight at Mr. Elkins' house said afterwards: "After dinner, when some of Mr. Blaine's friends dropped in, we talked politics over our cigars. That rainy day, with the misfortune it brought, was mentioned. Conkling, with his little county, and the Rev. Dr. Burchard, with his alliterative scalping-knife, were spoken of. Mr. Blaine declared that the magnificent vote that he had received would satisfy the ambition of any American citizen. He spoke glowingly of the true and loyal friends who supported him, and he compared again the magnificent cordon of States that stretch from Ohio to California, all Republican, with the solid South."

Mr. Blaine dined with D. O. Mills at his residence on Fifth avenue this evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Elkins were of the party. Mr. Blaine afterwards went to the Metropolitan Opera House and listened to "Lohengrin" from a seat in the box of Mr. Mills.

ARMED MEN.

Peculiar State of Affairs in a Kentucky Town.

A MURDER TRIAL WHICH PROMISES LIVELY TIMES.

LOUISBURG, Ky., Dec. 3.—A warlike state of affairs is reported at Whitesburg. The town is filled with armed men and a bloody fight is imminent. Judge Finley of Williamsburg, a famous mountain jurist, is judge of the circuit and for two years past has not dared to go to Whitesburg to hold court because of a threat made by one of the most desperate men in the county to kill him if he ever entered it. This man recently fell a victim to the prevailing plague and after his death Judge Finley again went to Letcher county.

At this term of the October county court, a man was to be tried for murder. The man was out on bail, and his friends, all of them being of the same desperate character as the murderer, determined that he should not be punished.

The case was set for Wednesday and on that day the accused came marching into town carrying a double-barrelled shot gun and a belt full of revolvers, followed by a score of his friends armed to the teeth. They were almost immediately followed by another crowd of the same size, all carrying guns and pistols. The latter company was composed of friends of the victim, who encamped on a bluff overlooking and commanding the town.

Meantime a third band, composed of citizens who thought that the law should be allowed to take its way and the peace be preserved, even if they had to kill every desperado in the county to secure that end, organized among themselves and went on duty to stay until after the court adjorns. The bands composed of friends of the murdered man and of those of his murderer are watching each other closely, one to keep the other in town and the other to keep their foes out, while the citizens' band stands ready to attempt to clean out the entire party when the trouble begins. The party composed of the murderer and friends has been very riotous and drunken since their arrival, and most conflicts have occurred between some of its members and outsiders, and on Monday a pitched battle was so imminent that the guns of the opposing squads were prepared for a fight, but for a time an affray was avoided.

It is thought that serious trouble will occur before the close of the session today. Whitesburg is a remote spot far from the telegraph, and news later than the above regarding the situation cannot be obtained.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day:

Hugh McCulloch of Maryland to be Secretary of the Treasury; Frank Hatton of Iowa to be Postmaster General; Gen. S. Crosby of New York to be Assistant Postmaster General; James Harlan of Iowa to be presiding judge of the court of commissioners of Alabama claims; Walter Q Gresham of Indiana to be circuit judge of the United States for the seventh judicial circuit.

Pension for Gen. Grant.

Senator Mitchell has prepared and will to-morrow introduce a bill granting a pension of $5,000 to Gen. Grant for life beginning with the date of his retirement from the Presidency.

U. S. Shipping Commissioners' Fees.

The Commissioner of navigation has issued a circular to the United States shipping commissioners in which he says: It is found to have been the practice of the United States shipping commissioner at some ports while under the jurisdiction of the United States Circuit Court to receive in addition to the prescribed fees for shipment of seamen a further remuneration for preparing papers, etc. There being no special authority of law for the practice it should be discontinued and charges be made hereafter by shipping commissioners or their subordinates for preparing official papers furnishing blanks or for other similar services.

BOGUS BALLOTS.

The Secretary of the Democratic County Committee and the Chicago Election Frauds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The Daily News will say tomorrow that during the examination of the alleged forged ballots by the United States grand jury today Fallis who engraved a fac simile of the head of the Republican ticket and Wright of Hanscom & Co., who set up and printed the body of the ticket were called in and shown the tickets which were supposed to be fraudulent; that Fallis identified the head as that engraved by him by certain accidental slips of the engraving tool, and that Wright identified the whole ticket as that printed on the night of November 21st or 17 days after the election. At this time the original ballots were in custody of county clerk Egan. It has already been reported that Wright yesterday testified before the grand jury that the bogus ballots were delivered on the evening of November 21st to J. C. Mackin, secretary of the Democratic County Committee.

The latter action caused a jump in the stock from $202 to $209, the latter figures being bid after the morning board.

A Notorious Woman Again Before the Public.

Mrs. Howe, of the Woman's Bank, after having served three years in the house of correction for swindling depositors and whose case attracted a great deal of attention at the time, has, it is reported, announced herself as agent in a new enterprise on Concord street which from the advertisement seems to be a somewhat similar institution to the Woman's Bank. Seven dollars per month interest is offered per month on $100, with three months' interest in advance. The old Woman's Bank offered 8 per cent. per month on $100 and three months' interest in advance, and received large numbers of deposits with disastrous results to depositors.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Pleased With the Ratification of Lease of Eastern.

BOSTON, N, H., Dec. 3.—A gang of Boston and Maine Railroad Company employes commenced today to connect the Eastern Railroad branch track here with the Boston and Maine track. The Eastern depot is to be abolished and all trains are to run into the Boston and Maine depot. A circular received by the Eastern Railroad employes here today stated that they were, commencing today, to draw their wages from the Boston and Maine. Business people here are much pleased at the ratification of the lease, believing that it will materially help Dover.

New England Trap Shooters.

BOSTON, Dec. 3.—At Walnut Hill today the championship badge of the New England Trap Shooters' Association was won by H. W. Eager of the Worcester Association after a sharp contest by a score of 45 out of a possible 50.

XLVIIIth Congress—2d Session

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.

The chair laid before the Senate today the report of the commission appointed to select a site for a pedestal of the Garfield statue. The report states that the commission has selected as a site the circle at the foot of Capitol hill at the intersection of First street and Maryland avenue. The report was referred to the committee on public buildings and grounds.

Mr. Vest's resolution of yesterday calling for an investigation into the leases made by Indian tribes of lands in Indian territory was taken up.

An amendment offered by Mr. Conger was agreed to including within the scope of the investigation the leases of lands in the Indian reservation.

Mr. Plumb referring to Mr. Vest's criticisms made yesterday upon the course of the interior department, said that the present secretary of the interior was only following the precedents set by his predecessor. Much of the land held by the Indians Mr. Plumb continued, was land that they did not and would not need and which was fit for agriculture. It was becoming a question for Congress to consider whether owing to the rapid exhaustion of the public domain some of these lands should not be obtained for settlement. He hoped the investigation contemplated would result in suggestions of a plan which would reconcile the needs of the settlers and Indians.

The resolution was then agreed to.

Mr. Slater gave notice that on Monday next he would move to take up and press to passage a bill declaring forfeited the unearned lands granted to the Oregon Central Railroad.

On motion of Mr. Sherman the committees of the Senate in existence July 7th, 1884, were continued and the presiding officer of the Senate given power to fill vacancies.

The Senate then at 12.55 went into executive session and at 1.45 the doors were re-opened and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

In the House Mr. O'Neill of Pennsylvania presented the petition of the widow of Commodore Thomas S. Fillibrown, asking for a pension. It was referred.

On motion of Mr. Cobb of Indiana the Senate amendments to the House bill forfeiting the unearned land grant to the Atlantic & Pacific R. R. Company were not concurred in.

At 12.30 the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Cox of New York in the chair, on a bill making temporary provision for the naval service. No amendments were offered to the bill and no discussion was had upon it, Mr. Randall merely making a brief statement to show that the total appropriation for the support of the navy for the current fiscal year was $15,636,166, a reduction of $258,228 from the appropriation for the previous year.

The committee then rose and the bill passed.

The House then resumed consideration of the inter-State commerce bill.

Mr. Seymour of Connecticut insisted upon the importance of this subject before the House and supported with certain limitations the bill as reported.

Mr. Long of Massachusetts, another member of the committee, next addressed the House, affirming that legislation on the subject of inter-State transportation was desirable, and demanded that the question be discussed.

The afternoon session was occupied in discussions of the inter-State commerce bill, which finally went over.

On motion of Mr. Morrison of Illinois, it was ordered that when the House adjourn tomorrow it be to meet Monday next.

Adjourned.

MEETING OF ELECTORS.

Casting Their Votes for President and Vice President.

WHAT KANSAS SAYS ABOUT MR. BLAINE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Despatches from different state capitals report that the President electors chosen at the recent election met today and cast their votes for President and Vice Presidential. At Raleigh, N. C., the ballots used were made of silk, grown in that State and were made into United States flags. New Jersey electors united in recommending Attorney General Stockton as a proper representative of New Jersey for a cabinet position in case President Cleveland should determine to solicit a member of his cabinet from this State.

Connecticut's six Democratic electors voted in Hartford today for Cleveland and Hendricks, and ex-State Senator J. D. Plunkett of New Haven was appointed messenger to Washington.

The Massachusetts electors for President and Vice President met today and cast 14 ballots for Blaine and Logan. F. A. Hobart of Braintree was chosen messenger to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The Arkansas electors unanimously adopted a memorial to the President-elect urging Senator Garland for attorney general. The Kansas electors adopted the following:

Resolved, That we desire to convey to our gallant standard bearers, Hon. J. G. Blaine and Hon. John A. Logan, an expression of our confidence and esteem and that we regard Mr. Blaine and Gen. Logan as private citizens as higher and better representatives of American manhood than any official representative of the democratic party; that we recognize in James G. Blaine the greatest living representative of American Republicanism, and tender him our earnest thanks for his manly and aggressive campaign for Republican supremacy, that Kansas, the first born child of Republicanism, again pledges her fidelity to Republican principles, and in figures as grim in the past, Kansas will march at the head of the Republican column, giving more Republican majority in proportion to her population than any other State.

CONCORD, Dec 3—The Presidential electors met at the State house this forenoon and balloted for President and Vice President, Blaine and Logan each receiving four votes. Col. James A. Wood of Acworth was elected messenger to deliver the certificate to the president of the Senate.

RECKLESS MAYOR.

A Democratic Official Brought Up with a Round Turn.

REPUBLICANS REGAIN CONTROL IN SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 3.—A Republican wrangle in Springfield a year ago last spring allowed the Democrats to elect C. W. Constantine as mayor of that city. No sooner had he entered upon the discharge of his duties than the work of overturning both the police and fire departments was begun, but the council, which was Republican, refused to confirm his appointments. Last winter Mayor Constantine secured the passage of a bill authorizing the governor to appoint a board of police commissioners, consisting of four members, to be divided equally so far as politics were concerned, but the bill made the mayor ex officio a member, giving the entire control of the department to the Democrats and then the work of bounciing the old officers was indulged in to such an extent that none of the old force remained. So reckless did Mayor Constantine become that the leading citizens commenced proceeding ina mandamus requiring the mayor to show why he held office as ex-officio member of the Board of

THE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 4.

The French premier's triumph in getting through the Deputies a vote of confidence in his Chinese policy and an appropriation to continue the war seems destined to be short-lived. He experienced two notable defeats on Tuesday on cabinet questions; and both he and his ministry now seem to be on the eve of resignation.

The vote of Texas was yesterday for the first time officially announced as follows,—Cleveland 223,208; Blaine 88,353; Butler 3,321; St. John 3,511. Cleveland's plurality 134,855. The returns given yesterday showed that in 37 States Mr. Blaine's plurality was about 90,000. This return from the 38th State gives Cleveland a plurality in the whole country of over 40,000. The Democratic vote is larger than in 1880 by 66,680, and the Republican vote by 35,055. The Republican increase is relatively larger than that of the Democrats.

The New York Evening Post tells President-elect Cleveland that the best thing he can do is to keep Minister Lowell at the Court of St. James. If zeal in his support entitles a newspaper to his consideration Cleveland ought to comply with the Post's request, for certainly no Democratic paper in the land excelled the Independent Post either in the fulsomeness of its praise of the Democratic candidate or the violence of its attacks upon Mr. Blaine. It out-Heroded Herod. But there are many Democrats who would like that place.

The Democrats at the first opportunity have pounced upon United States Marshal Wright of the southern district of Ohio, to whose successful arrangements to prevent illegal voting their defeat in the October election in that State was undoubtedly largely due. He is to be investigated by a committee of the House, the majority of which will be composed of Democrats, on a charge of intimidating voters. It is highly probable that he is guilty of that offence. No doubt he so intimidated a great many Democratic roughs so that they did not vote but once.

The Boston Herald is very much rejoiced at President-elect Cleveland's refusal of a Newfoundland dog which one of his admirers attempted to present to him. The Herald sees in the refusal evidence that the new President is determined to keep clear from all entangling alliances. The man who offered him the dog might want an office later on, and it would be so hard to repudiate the obligation incurred by accepting the present of a pup. Perhaps, however, it was not this consideration which influenced Cleveland. Perhaps he doesn't like dogs, or at least Newfoundland dogs. It may be he prefers bull pups. He is credited with having something of the bull dog nature.

A committee of the Harvard faculty, which has been considering the subject of athletic sports has just drawn up a report. They say they have been present at all the intercollegiate games of football the past season, and the conclusion from their observation is that the game as at present played is "brutal and demoralizing." Therefore they recommend that Harvard students be forbidden from taking part in any more foot ball contests, except friendly games among themselves. The faculties of other colleges ought to follow Harvard's lead in this matter, and the sooner the better. The foot ball match appears to be about as demoralizing, and a good deal more dangerous, than the prize fight.

The stockholders of both the Boston & Maine and the Eastern railroads by a very large majority have ratified the lease of the latter road to the former, and the opponents of the consolidation have appealed to the courts as they did in the case of the former lease. It is possible that the court may discover in the last lease fatal defects, but hardly probable because the instrument has been drawn substantially under the instructions of the court—that is to say, the court in pointing out the defects of the first lease, indicated clearly the kind of a lease that it would be obliged to sustain. But even if the court should happen to find a fatal defect in this lease, that is not likely to defeat the consolidation. Another lease would then be drawn up and undoubtedly ratified. The majority of the owners of the property are determined that the two roads shall be under one management, and eventually they are likely to have their own way, spite of the strenuous opposition of the small minority of stockholders. The minority may be able to overthrow temporarily the consolidation, but it is hardly possible for them to defeat it altogether.

Reflections on the Figures.

Having already presented as accurately as it can now be ascertained the vote of the States in the last presidential election and called attention to some of the remarkable phenomena it presented, without attempting to explain them, it is worth while now to give attention to the causes of the facts, which are liable to be misunderstood, and which those who are interested to do so will constantly misrepresent from now until the next election. The figures are not agreeable to Republicans because they have accomplished the defeat of the party in this election, and they are especially disagreeable because the margin of difference is so slight that the defeat appears like an avoidable accident instead of something which could not have been helped. This is cause for regret, but it is not cause for discouragement. Indeed it is the circumstance which gives the Republican party almost an assurance of victory in the near future, and warns the Democratic party that its triumph is a freak of fortune rather than a verdict of popular approval.

The returns show that the vote of New England was not as large as it ought to have been in consideration of the increase in population. In our judgment this failure on the part of voters to exercise the right of suffrage is explainable upon other grounds than those by which the Democrats and Independents will seek to explain it. The assumption that if any other candidates had been nominated there would have been a larger Republican vote is probably incorrect, except as to two States. In Massachusetts, the headquarters of the mugwumps, possibly that result might have happened. If Mr. Edmunds had been nominated probably the Vermont Republicans would have polled a larger vote; but it may be doubted whether another nomination would have made any substantial difference in the vote of the other New England States.

The small vote in this State in the Presidential election is easily accounted for. Four years ago the State was carried in September by the Democrats, and both parties exerted themselves to get out every voter in November. This year the Republicans were successful in September by a decisive majority, and thousands who vote only when they are urged stayed at home. In New Hampshire the falling off was slight, not greater than the rainstorm might account for, and so equally from both parties that the difference in the pluralities between this year and four years ago is less than one hundred. Vermont is so certainly Republican under any circumstances that nobody feels under compulsion to vote. Rhode Island increased its vote for both parties. Connecticut would probably have gone Democratic under any circumstances, unless Hawley could have saved it; but we cannot have as many Republican candidates as there are favorite sons. It is probable that the Irish workingmen who voted for Mr. Blaine outnumbered the mugwumps who left the Republican party. The increase of population in Connecticut by immigration is largely of the class, who incline to vote the Democratic ticket.

It has long been noticed and is a matter of regret that a smaller proportion of the qualified voters in New England go to the polles than in other States where voting is free. In Massachusetts for years before General Butler roused the people from a contented lethargy concerning the results of elections the vote at any time was very small compared with the number who might have voted, no matter who were the candidates; but the majorities were always large. If Vermont should have a similar shaking up we might find out how many Republicans there are in that State.

With regard to the rest of the Northern States it is pure assumption for anybody to say that the Republicans would have polled a larger vote or had larger pluralities with any other candidates. Every politician will admit that it was a vital point to carry Ohio in October. Does anybody know a well informed Ohio Republican who thinks another candidate would have achieved that hard task more certainly and with more effect than Mr. Blaine? Does anyone know a well informed Indiana Republican who believes a stronger or surer fight could have been made in that State with any other candidate? Pluralities are not so large in some of the Western States as they were four years ago. The Republicans there are as sensitive to that fact as any Republicans; but we have yet to learn that they believe it would have been better for them to have had other leaders.

In June they thought that Mr. Blaine would poll a larger vote than any other Republican. There is no intimation that they have changed their minds now. And the fact that the pluralities are not so large as they have been sometimes does not prove their judgment mistaken. Unless some one can demonstrate that there is no other reason for the losses it is not just to suppose the Western Republicans do not know their own preferences. Fusion carried Michigan against the Republicans two years ago; but Blaine won it back. The Democrats carried Ohio a year ago; but Blaine won it back. The fact is the Republicans had been losing ground for some time. There was a certain amount of discontent and desire for change which had no reference to candidates. If all the ground lost has not been recovered this year it does not follow that there was any practicable way of recovering more. In the far West Blaine's nomination carried States which any other nomination would have lost, and in the South he got all the votes than any Repulican could have had.

The election was lost by losing New York and New York was lost by a scratch. The defection of the Independents there would have failed except for circumstances they did not create.

Democrats and the Currency.

The Bangor Commercial thinks the public will not approve President Arthur's recommendation in regard to the silver coinage, and intimates that the hue and cry against silver has been raised by bankers for selfish purposes. It is true that men familiar with the laws governing currency, many of whom are bankers, were the first to point out the evils likely to result from the coinage of silver, but it by no means follows, nor is it a fact, that they oppose the continuance of the silver coinage for purely selfish motives and against the interest of the rest of the community. Of course it is for the advantage of everybody, bankers included, to have a sound currency, but the chief sufferers from a depreciated currency are not bankers nor capitalists. They are the men of small means, the workers for wages. That is as well settled by experience as anything can be.

It may be, as the Commercial seems to think, that the public will disapprove of President Arthur's recommendation to stop the silver coinage, but if so it will be because the false notion has been instilled into them by Democratic papers like the Commercial that the interests of the banks in this matter and of the public are not identical, and that the banks are putting up a job to enrich themselves at the expense of the general public. We are inclined to think, however, that since the Democratic press gave its influence to the spread of the Greenback delusion the intelligent portion of the public has ceased to place much dependence upon the currency disquisitions of Democratic newspapers, and therefore we believe that a very large portion of this part of the public does approve President Arthur's recommendation.

DO THE RIGHT THING.

Common Sense Talk to Bilious People. Clear Testimony of a Witness.

ALBANY, N. Y.

Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR: About eight years ago I began to suffer from a Liver difficulty. During the attacks I experienced severe pain, accompanied by what I cannot describe better than by calling it a drawing in sensation. The agony of it was almost beyond endurance. None of the usual medicines employed in such cases had any effect upon me. From time to time I was laid up and unable to attend to any business. This covered a period of a year.

Finally Mr. Lloyd, a druggist of this city, suggested your FATORITE REMEDY as an excellent thing for the Liver. I had not taken the whole of the first bottle before I found most decided relief; the pain passed away, and to my delight I regained the power to enjoy and digest my food without the former distress. Nature seemed to be set going again. I cannot better express my appreciation of Dr. David Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, than by telling you that since my personal knowledge of its virtues I have recommended it to a great many of my friends and acquaintances.

Yours truly, S. PEPSON.

SHAKESPEARE SAYS:

"Therefore the moon, the governess of floods,
Pale in her anger, washes all the air,
That rheumatic diseases may abound."

Whether the "pale moon" has increased the size of her wash as the world has increased in population may be a question, but its a fact beyond question that Rheumatism has increased until it does "abound" in "all the air," and thousands of human beings are bound and tormented with the excruciating pains that only Rheumatism and Neuralgia can inflict.

ATHLOPHOROS

is the ONLY conqueror of these terrible diseases, as hundreds gladly testify.

Mr. O. Thornton, C. R.-I. & P. R. R. Machine Shops, Stuart, Iowa, writes:

"Athlophoros greatly relieved me of distressing Rheumatism, and I willingly recommend it as a remedy that will cure Rheumatism. I was confined to my bed, and after using one bottle was able to go to work."

Even if so strange that at first you may hardly believe it, it IS true that "ATHLOPHOROS" will do for YOU just what it has done for others.

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed.

PROF. MOHR also delights his audience at every entertainment with one of his rare repertoires of Ventriloquism, Legerdemain, Charcoal Sketching and feats of seeming impossibilities so mysteriously remarkable as to render explanation impossible, and to more than warrant the HERALD'S eulogistic tribute, when it said of him: "The mantle of the mighty Heller seems indeed to have fallen upon worthy shoulders!" OENA has been engaged by delighted managers to appear in London, Paris, St. Petersburg and elsewhere abroad.

DR. LESLIE'S

Special Prescription

— FOR —

SICK HEADACHE

— AND —

SEASICKNESS.

TESTIMONIALS:

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1884.

S. B. ARCHER—Dear Sir: I have suffered from Nervous Sick Headache all my life. Nothing gave me relief until I tried Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription for Sick Headache. Have used it for the past five years and it works like a charm. Truly yours, JOHN N. FEASEY, with W. H. Frear.

882 River street, Troy, N. Y., Sept. 12, 1880.

S. B. ARCHER—Dear Sir: For over twenty years I have been troubled with sick headache, having an attack every two weeks which confined me to my bed for two or three days each time, and I have been unable to find anything that would help me until I tried Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription about a year ago; since then I have had but one attack, and that was caused by overwork and anxiety over the sickness of my da guter. I can therefore heartily recommend it to all afflicted with headache.

Yours sincerely, CHARLOTTE PETRY.

882 River street, Troy, N. Y., Sept. 6, 1884.

S. B. ARCHER—Sir: In reply to yours asking whether I had any more trouble with headache, will say that I have not been troubled with it for all the five years, and that my general health has greatly improved, and I feel that I owe it all to Dr. Leslie's Special Prescription. Yours very truly CHARLOTTE PETRY.

OXFORD RYE WHISKEY.

On July 1, 1883, we introduced to the trade generally, our now celebrated brand of 5 year old Whiskey, widely known as

and the signal success attending our venture in these particular goods leads us to call the attention more fully to consumers who have not tried THE OXFORD, that in order to appreciate a really good, pure article, either for medicinal purposes or otherwise, should lose no time, or spend any more money, until satisfied by their own personal experience by giving THE OXFORD one trial, to prove what we say is absolutely true in every particular. Prof. Jas. F. Babcock, our State Assayer, writes as follows:

Established 1863.

JAMES F. BABCOCK.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist,
(State Assayer and Inspector of Liquors; late Professor of Chemistry in Boston University and Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.)

4 STATE STREET, Boston, June 16, 1883.

WOOD, POLLARD & CO.,

Gentlemen:—I have made a chemical analysis of a sample of "THE OXFORD RYE WHISKEY" and find the same to be of excellent quality, and free from any adulteration. It is of full proof strength, contains no artificial flavor or coloring, and is in all respects pure.

Respectfully, JAMES F. BABCOCK.

THE OXFORD is put up in cases only, containing twelve good size bottles, each bottle bearing a fac-simile of our signature, together with the certificate of our State Assayer, which warrants its contents.

We have caused our brand "THE OXFORD" to be registered in the Patent Office at Washington, and propose to protect it if used by unscrupulous dealers.

Be sure you get THE OXFORD when you ask your Grocer or Druggist for it—TAKE NO OTHER—Put up in bottles only.

The Asylum for Idiots.

About 35 gentlemen, including Mayor King, a number of members of the City Government and the Overseers of the Poor, assembled at the Almshouse at 6.30 p. m. yesterday, and after partaking of an excellent supper inspected the new Asylum for Idiots, the Greeley Hospital, and the Almshouse proper, finding everything in excellent condition. After the inspection Mr. Lyman Kimball, of the board of officers, presented the new asylum—a description of which was published in yesterday's PRESS—to the Mayor, for the city, in a capital speech, which was fitly responded to by Mayor King. The party then returned to the city.

WALTER F. PHILLIPS'S WILL

Not Approved by the Judge of Probate.

The PRESS lately published the bequests in the will of the late Walter F. Phillips of Portland. By the will the sum of $5,000 was left to W. P. Pierce, who was also one of the witnesses to the will. At a court of probate held in Portland, Tuesday, the petition of Rebecca Kimball Ketchum of Vergennes, Vt., the residuary legatee was presented praying for the proving and allowal of the will and the issuing of letters testamentary to the executor. It being proved by the testimony of Julia A. Sawyer and Charles F. Andrews, two of the subscribing wilnesses to the will (W. P. Pierce the other subscribing witness not being within the state and jurisdiction of the court) that said W. P. Pierce is beneficially interested under said instrument, and that said instrument was not legally executed as the last will and testament of the deceased, the judge decreed that said instrument be not approved and not allowed as the last will and testament of the deceased.

The laws of Maine require that the witnesses to a will shall subscribe their names in the presence of the testator, he signing in their presence, and that there shall be three credible attesting witnesses to a will, said witnesses not to be beneficially interested under said will. Property not disposed of by will shall be distributed as the estate of an intestate. In one case recorded in 70 Maine 548 the judge allowed a will, where one of the witnesses was interested, because by its allowance the witness received a much smaller sum than he would have been entitled to by the disallowance of the will—an heir-at-law to the deceased. The Massachusetts laws, differ in the wording, in relation to the approval of a will, but the purport is the same. George E. B. Jackson and Judge Nathan Cleaves of this city were yesterday appointed administrators. The bond given was one hundred thousand dollars. The daughter and heir of the deceased, Mrs. Ketchum, wife of Rev. Charles J. Ketchum, wishes the administrators, who were appointed upon her petition, to carry out in the administration the provisions of the will of her late father.

A Couple of Horse Frames.

At Jewell's stable on Centre street, may be seen two as dilapidated specimens of horse flesh as it is possible almost to conceive of. They belong to Leander D. Hamlin of Morrill's Corner, and Charles H. Bennett of Pride's Bridge. They were taken away from their owners by Cruelty Agent A. M. Sawyer, and he will put them out of their misery this evening. The animal belonging to Hamlin was being driven about town yesterday, so sore that he was really unable to travel; but the owner nevertheless, valued him "so highly" that he accepted an offer from Bennett to "swap even," and had parted with a horse "equally valuable." The exchange was made Tuesday, near the Marine Hospital. After housing Hamlin's animal, Mr. Sawyer went out to Pride's Bridge and secured Bennett's, and it took him almost five hours to come in with him, some four miles.

The Checker Match.

The checker match was continued yesterday afternoon with a good attendance. At the commencement of play the games stood 25 played, of which Mr. Wright had won 5, Mr. Walker 3, and there were 17 drawn. Yesterday afternoon 7 games were played, all of which were drawn. In the evening 7 games were played, of which Mr. Wright won 1, Mr. Walker 1, and 5 were drawn. The score stands as follows:

Whole number of games	39
Mr. Wright has won	6
Mr. Walker has won	4
Drawn	29

The games will be continued at 2.30 p. m. today. Great interest is manifested.

The Mechanics' Course.

Herbert M. Sylvester will open the Mechanics' free course, on Dec 8th, with a lecture on "Some People and their Opportunities." To be followed by Rev. Asa Dalton, Dec. 15th, on "The Survival of the Fittest"; Jan. 1st, Dr. Holt on "The Eye"; Jan. 8th, Major J. M. Gould on "Improvement in Weapons of War"; Jan. 15th, Charles B. Fuller on the "Lower Orders of Life," illustrated by the stereopticon. It is also expected there will be lectures given by Hon. C. F. Libby, Rev. Mr. Blanchard, E. H. Elwell, J. P. Baxter, Dr. Sarah W. Devoll, Mrs. J. S. Palmer, Dr. Gordon, Rev. Mr. LeLacheur, C. S. Fobes, and Supt. Farnham of the Telephone Exchange.

Gored by a Steer.

A stevedore named Kellogg was severely gored in the groin by an infuriated steer, while assisting to load cattle on to the Allan steamer Austrian Tuesday. The steer was driven through the fence in the passageway, but reaching the hatchway laid down and could not be made to go any farther. The passageway behind was blocked up by the cattle, and all that could be done was to tear down the fence and roll the refractory animal to the deck of the steamer. Arriving there he sprang up on his feet, and made for the crowd, which dispersed in all directions. All got safely away with the exception of Kellogg, who was very seriously injured.

Thefts.

Last evening about 6.15 o'clock, while Mr. Coolidge, the jeweler, at the corner of Union and Fore streets, was attending to customers in the rear of the store, some rascals thrust a stick in the handle of the front door, so that it could not be opened from the inside, and then broke a square of glass in the front window and stole a gold watch worth $50, and two silver watches worth $10 apiece.

A ribbed undershirt and some scarlet hose were stolen from the front of Mr. Sweetsir's store, on Congress street, yesterday.

Ball of the Portland Fire Department.

The Relief Association of the Portland Fire Department has paid to sick and disabled firemen from April 1st, 1884 to December 4, 1884, $1,039.25. The ball to be given by the Fire Department December 11th is to raise funds for the Relief Association and it is hoped the citizens will show their appreciation of the Fire Department by contributing freely to so good a cause.

A Trip to Mexico.

Such was the title of Mr. Ober's lecture given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening, to a very good audience. Mr. Ober is a correspondent of repute, who has furnished the Boston Herald with a series of exhaustive lectures on Mexico, the country which has lately come into much prominence through the new railroads connecting it with the United States, built by American capital.

Mr. Ober's lecture was full of good and interesting material, but the gentleman has not got down yet to the understanding that an illustrated lecture is a very different thing from one that is not. There is too much lecture for the pictures, and not enough views of the right sort. There are too few views of grand palaces, public squares and streets full of bustling activity, and too many pictures of individual people, although the latter are types of the national character. The pictures too are not of a class to compare with those of other lecturers who have visited us, and the lecturer and his operator are not yet fully in accord. Mr. Ober also has failed to master his lecture thoroughly, and consequently hesitates painfully. But with all these defects there is much of a pleasing character, and a good idea was given of the land, with its relics of the Montezumas, its grand old Cathedral of Mexico, the Chapel of the Virgin, the hall where Maximilian and the unfortunate Carlotta were crowned, and its coffee fields and pulque factories.

ON THE ROLLERS.

DEERINGS, 3; PORTLANDS, 2.

The Portlands hope the adage, "A bad beginning makes a good ending," will prove true in their case. A multitude of causes made them play a miserable game in many respects last night, although they made enough good plays to make an interesting game to spectators. The absence of their regular goal tender (Moreay) caused a change of positions which worked bad for them. Foster played in the goal in the first two goals, and then gave way to Orr. Both these men have always played as cover points, and stopping the ball was something new to them. Winship played as substitute and filled the position of cover point. The boys wore their new suits for the first time, and the exertions made in stretching them on might have tired them. Something surely did. New hockeys were another feature that did not tend towards success. The club made a fine appearance in their new uniforms, which are dark blue throughout with the exception of the caps, which have two white stripes.

The Deerings played a fine game, although they had practiced none together. McAndrews played instead of Durgan, so that the club is virtually a second Portlands (or first, if they keep on.) Masterton played splendidly in the goal and made some fine stops. Their new uniforms have not arrived, and they appeared in various costumes last night.

The first goal started off in good shape, but in a few seconds Lowell's skate got out of repair, and three minutes were used in fixing it. The ball was spotted again, and Dunn's hockey broke, making another wait of one minute. The third time the ball was started it kept on until it went past Foster, struck by McAndrews. Time, 7 minutes. The second goal lasted ten minutes. The goal tending by Masterton was one of its best features, and some fine plays were made by Kelsey, who did finely all through the game. Foster made several good stops, but the ball at last rolled lazily by him, sent again by McAndrews. The Portlands went into the third goal with a little more vim, and it was only half a minute before Dunn had secured the goal for them. The fourth was won in about the same time by them. The ball was sent, by a series of plays by Winship, Kelsey and Foster, directly into the Deerings' goal. The referee claimed that their goal tender stood or rather turned back of the line to stop it, and that the ball passed over the line. It struck his body and bounced back, but as it apparently crossed the line the goal was given the Portlands. The last goal was won by the Deerings in three minutes. The Portlands will probably never have so many good chances to win a goal in a game again as they did in that last goal, but not one of those chances did they accept. The ball rolled back and forth in front of the Deerings' goal about half the time, and once it laid within a few inches of the line with a clear field for it to go through. But no one was on hand except the Deering cover goals, and they finally sent it to Taylor, who passed it through the Portlands' goal.

The time of the game was twenty-five minutes. It was a very satisfactory one to spectators, and one good feature was the stopping of the game by the referee, Mr. Frank Barnes, when there was any attempt at rough play. The return game between these two clubs occurs December 19th. The next league game in the Bijou will be to-morrow night between the Deerings and Biddefords. The game which was to have been played at Lewiston to-night between the Portlands and W. H. T.'s has been postponed, and will probably take place Saturday night.

EXHIBITION AT PORTLAND RINK TO-NIGHT.

To-night at Portland rink, in Storer Block, Prof. Harmon from Saccarappa will give an exhibition of trick and fancy skating. Prof. Harmon's exhibitions have given the best of satisfaction wherever he has appeared, and those who go to-night may be sure of seeing an exhibition of graceful movements. His specialties embrace many of the finest movements and he does them well. At the low price of admission charged at this rink one can enjoy a good skate and see a fine exhibition without much of a drift on the pocket-book, and the cosy rink will doubtless be crowded.

LEAGUE MEETING.

A meeting of the directors of the Maine League was held in this city yesterday. There were present representatives of the Portlands, Deerings, W. H. T.'s, Alamedas and Granite City's. Biddeford was not represented. A pattern for the new medals was agreed upon and it was voted to order them of Atwood & Wentworth. It was also voted to play out the schedule as first prepared, which calls for 120 games, and not to shorten it as the managers of the Biddeford rink have requested.

NOTES.

At St. Johnsbury, Vt., the question of allowing the school children to attend the skating rink has been settled by allowing them to go Saturday afternoons and excluding all others.

The Salems secured their first game since the league started Tuesday night, defeating the Woburns by a score of 3 to 2 in seventeen minutes.

A New Hampshire league is being formed. They are taking the sensible course and propose to adopt the goal box.

The team of base ballists known as the Wright & Ditson polo team commenced Tuesday to practice in the Bay State rink, Chelsea. Buffinton plays in the goal.

The refereeing last night was first-class, and the decisions of Mr. Barnes were rendered promptly and in good taste.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

CALLENDER'S MINSTRELS.

The times have changed since the olden days, and the simplicity and novitiate of minstrelsy has been rudely shattered by the stately march of improvement. Now we have swell darkies, exquisite music, dainty dressing, and superb opera in dusky hue and elaborate costumes. To this great advance credit is due to Callender, who has helped transform into an art what has always been a mere bagatelle, and his troupe will be at Portland Theatre next Tuesday.

OENA.

Professor Mohr will give his entertainments at City Hall, Friday and Saturday, and tickets can be procured at Stockbridge's. The Professor has with him the wonderful Oena, in addition to whom he introduces some pleasing feats in ventriloquism and legerdemain and draws charcoal sketches interesting to all little people. Oena interests all. She is placed in a trapeze seated, and, when perfectly quiet, the trapeze is taken apart and Oena is left suspended in mid-air, without any visible support.

NOTES.

Dominick Murray, the well-known leading man of the Madison Square Theatre, New York, will present the great melodrama of "Escaped from Sing Sing," at Portland Theatre, December 15th.

The Haydns have postponed the production of "The Fall of Babylon" for some weeks, and will give a miscellaneous concert at their hall, December 15th.

SUBURBAN NOTES.

South Freeport.

The new Congregational church at this place will be dedicated this afternoon. Rev T. S. Perry of Cumberland will preach the dedicatory sermon. Other clergymen are expected to be present.

East Deering.

Tomorrow evening there will be a dramatic entertainment at Ocean street hall, for the benefit of the Hall Association. The farce "M X" and Trowbridge's drama of "Coupon Bonds" will be brought out by the Dramatic Club of Lunt's Corner, and the entertainment will no doubt be a very pleasing one.

Care for the Children

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they become cross, peevish, and uncontrollable. The blood should be cleansed and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Last Spring my two children were vaccinated. Soon after, they broke all out with running sores, so dreadful I thought I should lose them. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured them completely; and they have been healthy ever since. I do feel that Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children to me." MRS. C. L. THOMPSON, West Warren, Mass.

Purify the Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion, 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla beats all others, and is worth its weight in gold." I. BARRINGTON, 130 Bank Street, New York City.

M. G. PALMER,
The only authorized Agent for Dongola in this City.

Unscrupulous manufacturers are trying to palm off very inferior boots under similar sounding names as Gondola, Donga, Vongola, &c. All genuine Dongola Boots have the word "DONGOLA," printed upon the lining and other parties do not dare use this name as it is copyrighted.
